Individuation for Adult Replacement Children

Ways of Coming into Being

Kristina E. Schellinski, C.G. Jung Institute, Küsnacht (CGJI) and International School for Analytical Psychology (ISAP), Switzerland

Schellinski uncovers the hidden trauma of adults who were born or designated as a replacement for a lost child or other member of the family. Individuation for Adult Replacement Children combines a Jungian perspective with research from psychoanalysis and attachment theory. Clinical examples illustrate how to recognize and treat the condition and how to prevent transmission. The book explores different Ways of Coming into Being when adult replacement children discover their true self in a transformative process. It looks at the impact of the condition on Carl Gustav Jung and pioneers of psychoanalysis, and discloses the author's personal experience.
